

Scott Greiner – District 2

Scott Greiner is a thirty-eight year old 3rd generation cattlemen. Scott, his wife Dione, and their three children own and operate Lazy T Ranch located near Indian Head, Saskatchewan. Lazy T Ranch is currently an operation that backgrounds and grasses 4000 yearlings each year of their own. In previous years Scott also ran 900 cow/calf pairs. Lazy T Ranch will celebrate 25 years in business this year. Scott also owns & operates the order buying company Greiner Cattle Feeders Inc.

Scott sources 100% of his cattle from Alberta, Manitoba, and Saskatchewan. Lazy T Ranch has fed cattle throughout both Canada and the USA. Scott stays current with cattle feed markets across the country, as well as, south of the border. Scott is proud to be a cattlemen from Saskatchewan, working in Saskatchewan; Scott strongly believes in moving forward with traceability in cattle management. Scott works closely with the Growing Forward Program, as well as with, Ducks Unlimited Canada. He utilizes local suppliers and services at every opportunity and would be a great addition to the board of the Saskatchewan Cattlemen's Association.